Nestled in one of Singapore's hippest enclaves, the Mercure ICON Singapore City Centre immerses travellers between the historic heart of Chinatown, the pulsating beat of the Central Business District and the lively epicurean scene on Club Street. From vibrant cultural sights to delicious hawker delights, an adventure of discovery awaits right at your doorstep.

The hotel is connected to Chinatown and Telok Ayer MRT stations on two transit lines, providing easy access to Singapore's attractions, shopping districts and business hubs.

An Exceptional Location for Holiday Makers and Business Travellers

An adventure of discovery awaits at every turn from the moment you step forth from the Mercure ICON Singapore City Centre. Soak up the buzz around the quaint shophouses on Club Street, Ann Siang Hill, and Duxton Hill, teeming with cool epicurean haunts, convivial drinking holes, and Instagram-worthy murals and facades.

On the flip side, explore the multifaceted alleys of Telok Ayer and Chinatown, where Chinese monuments stand alongside Indian temples and mosques, coupled with the city's most well-loved hawker delights at Maxwell Food Centre, Amoy Street, Hong Lim Food Centre, and People's Park Food Centre, all just a short walk away.

Chic, Eco-Conscious Rooms with a View

The hotel's 989 rooms are a chic and cosy retreat from the bustle of the city, with floor-to-ceiling windows or balconies overlooking the cityscape, Chinatown, pool and wellness deck.

Classic rooms are adorned with artistic shophouse murals inspired by the locale's distinctive facades. Deluxe and Privilege rooms are decked with elevated touches such as Hansgrohe rainshowers, in addition to Nespresso Coffee Machines in the Privilege rooms.

All rooms are fitted with eco-conscious features like in-room filtered water dispensers, wall-mounted bath amenities and biodegradable bathroom amenities.
